NOTICE OF MAIL IRREGULARITIES AND SERVICE DEFICIENCIES

Comes now Appellant Donald McDonald before this Honorable Court to inform the Court and the Department of Law of problematic mail service here at Wildwood Correctional Center. Legal mail in multiple cases is not reaching the recipients. These problems appear to involve civil actions against the Department of Corrections and/or the Alaska Parole Board.

Appellant has discovered through multiple calls to the Clerk of the Court that Court Orders and Court administrative documents were issued but never reached him. Indeed, this is the factual cause of Appellant's present 'Motion to Accept Late Filed Appeal.' The previous Order never reached him, and was only discovered after multiple months.

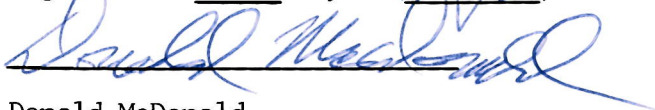

Appellant respectfully requests copies of any Orders from the Court or any administrative Court documents (scheduling, fees, etc.) be resent. Additionally Appellant respectfully requests that any Motions or Reply(s) generated by the Department of Law be resent. It appears that the mail issues center upon actions/filings after June 1, 2021.

Wildwood Correctional Center has had issues in the past with failure to appropriately handle legal mail. The American Civil Liberty Union investigated and substantiated the claims then, and has been apprised of the recent problems.

Appellant expresses his gratitude for the patience of the Court and opposing parties.

Signed this 4th day of August, 2021 at Kenai, Alaska
